Thanks and Thoughts

From a Mother in Tennessee: I received your offer on one of my lowest days and I cannot tell you how much I appreciate it. It would mean so much to me to receive a prayer shawl- thank you for such a wonderful and comforting service.

From a grateful Mamaw in North Carolina on behalf of her grandchildren: Thank you so very much for your ministry and outreach. You have already blessed us and I am confident that the shawls will continue to do so. Please pass our thanks on to your partners in this amazing work.

From a Wife in the Philippines: I have received your letter in the mail. And want to thank you all for your efforts and kindness especially in these dark days after our soldier's passing. All prayers are always welcome. My children and I want to thank you for giving strengths to all who are burdened with a heavy heart of the loss of a beloved. Thank you so much!!!

From a Wife and two Daughters in North Carolina: Thank you guys so much for doing this. You guys are doing amazing work.

From a Son and Daughter in Florida: Thank you for your support during this time.

From a Father in Georgia: Thank you.
