Thanks & Thoughts

From Parents in Texas: Hi, I am reaching out to you on the letter we received back in 2021. We lost our loved son CPL James Requenez on March 25. I was looking through his box and found this letter. I apologize for overlooking. We would love to have prayer shawls if possible. Thank you!

We appreciate your prayerful support as we wait for Casualty and Mortuary Affairs approval.

Special thanks to our Lions Club friends for permission to share the International Peace Poster winner on the following page.

From Slovenian artist Anja Rozen: When they look at my poster, I want people to think about how much we are connected to people we might not even know.
